

University of Manchester First World War Roll of Honour

This Roll of Honour is part of ongoing research being conducted as part of the University of Manchester's commemoration of the First World War Centenary 2014-2018. Information is being gathered from several sources, and sometimes differs between those sources. The details given below may change over time. Monthly a biography of each of those who fell in that month 100 years ago will be published online. Further information on or photographs of any of those listed is welcomed and appreciated.
